

UAE findings

Company-issued Computers: What are employees really doing with them?

87% of respondents, use company issued devices for personal matters.

59%

financial transactions

57%

personal email

51%

personal video calls

66%

of respondents reported an increase in personal usage during COVID

2-3 h/d

the average hours/day, respondents use company devices for personal business

61%

opened an email even though it looked suspicious

didn't report a suspicious looking email to IT

19%

have not received specific work from home cybersecurity training

How does this compare with the screen time that Apple iOS reports to you on a weekly basis?

Read the full report

mimecast