1. Human Risk Services.

1.1 Mimecast provides certain services which are intended to provide Human Risk Awareness and Training. Customer will be provided with these Human Risk Terms when purchasing such Services. Customer can enable certain application program interfaces (“APIs”) to enable the Human Risk Services to work in conjunction with certain third-party services, systems, and/or applications. The process to gain access to the APIs will be made available to Customer upon request. Customer is responsible for ensuring that the information provided to Mimecast to enable any API is and remains accurate and up to date.

1.1.1 Where Mimecast supplies Customer with a Mimecast API, all access keys, authentication procedures, and data to which Customer gains access or which is provided to Customer in connection with Customer’s use of the Mimecast API, excluding Customer Data, is the Confidential Information of Mimecast. Mimecast may revoke access to any API at any time without notice to Customer if Mimecast, in its reasonable discretion, believes necessary or appropriate.

1.1.2 Customer acknowledges and agrees that Mimecast is not responsible for any third-party APIs and no representations, warranties or commitments are made regarding the same. It is Customer’s sole responsibility to ensure it has valid licences for, and access to, all applicable any third-party APIs necessary to access and derive benefit from the Human Risk Services. Customer’s access and use of such any third-party APIs shall be governed solely by the terms and conditions of such any third-party APIs. If a third-party modifies its APIs so that they no longer interoperate with the Human Risk Services or imposes requirements on interoperability that are unreasonable for Mimecast, Mimecast may cease or suspend its provision of interoperability between the Human Risk Services and the affected third-party API, without liability.

1.1.3 Mimecast is not responsible for the security of the Customer Data until such time that the Customer Data enters the Mimecast environment, and all such transfers are conducted on Customer’s own volition and risk. To the extent Customer Data is retrieved from or provided by third-party APIs, Mimecast will not be liable for the condition of such Customer Data, including, but not limited to any Customer Data that is incorrect, incomplete, corrupt, or missing.

1.5 Customer will implement and maintain reasonable and appropriate controls to ensure that those accessing the Services are permitted to do so in accordance with Customer's internal policies and applicable law.

1.6 To the extent that the provision of the Human Risk Services requires download and/or installation of software components such as end-point agents, Customer shall ensure that such components are appropriately deployed to the Permitted Users and Customer hereby acknowledges that failure to do so may impact access to, and efficacy of, the Services.

1.7 Customer acknowledges that certain Human Risk Services may include a managed services offering.
